

Beth Partleton, PMP®

Director

Beth Partleton, from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, has been involved with Project Management Institute (PMI) since 1991. For six years she served on the PMI Educational Foundation Board of Directors, serving as chair in 2006. Partleton received the PMI Distinguished Contribution Award in 1998. Among her credits, she was the project manager for the 1997 PMI Symposium in Chicago, and has spent time on various PMI committees, including two years on the PMI Nominating Committee, and one year on the Ethics Appeal Committee. At the component level, Partleton was a founder and charter member of the Milwaukee/Southeast Wisconsin (USA) Chapter, and served as president in 2000. She also served three years on the board of directors for the Manufacturing Specific Interest Group (SIG).

Partleton is an experienced consultant who provides project and portfolio management to leading organizations. Companies benefit from her 30 year career with Miller Brewing Company, where she served as the director of Capital and Risk Management, responsible for portfolio management of capital projects at all Miller breweries in the United States. Partleton was also responsible for the project management of major capital projects. During her career with Miller, she also served as head of the PMO, senior project manager, and the functional manager of architectural and civil engineering.

Partleton holds a Master of Project Management degree from Keller Graduate School of Management and a Master of Architecture from University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee. She is a registered architect in the State of Wisconsin and has been a certified Project Management Professional (PMP)® since 1991.

About PMI

Project Management Institute (PMI.org) is the leading advocate for the project management profession globally. Founded in 1969, PMI has nearly 500,000 members and credential holders in 175 countries. PMI's Project Management Professional (PMP)® credential is recognized as the only globally-transferrable credential in project management.