

Bruce J. Rodrigues, MBL, PrEng, PMP®

Director

Bruce Rodrigues, from Johannesburg, South Africa, has provided leadership and service to the PMI Board of Directors. He is currently director of the PMI South Africa Chapter.

Mr. Rodrigues has attended PMI Leadership Institute Meetings every year since 1990. He has served PMI as a member of the Certification Committee (1995–1998), Standards Committee (1998), Globalization Project Action Team (1998–1999) and director of Regional Advocacy-Africa (2001–2002). In addition, he was a 2005 Strategic Planning and Program Alignment Committee (SPPA) member, and has served as chair since 2006.

Over the past 30 years, Mr. Rodrigues has visited, worked, presented, trained and consulted in project management in South Africa, the Middle East, the United States, the United Kingdom, Europe, Africa, India, Japan and Australia.

About PMI

Project Management Institute (PMI.org) is the leading advocate for the project management profession globally. Founded in 1969, PMI has nearly 500,000 members and credential holders in 175 countries. PMI's Project Management Professional (PMP®) credential is recognized as the only globally-transferrable credential in project management.