

Peter Monkhouse, BSc (Eng), MBA, PEng., PMP®

Director

Mr. Peter Monkhouse, from Toronto, Canada, has been a member of PMI since 1996. Mr. Monkhouse is past president of the PMI Southern Ontario Chapter; with over 4,000 members, it is one of PMI's largest chapters. In 2005, while serving as President, the PMI Southern Ontario Chapter was recognized as "PMI Chapter of the Year". In addition, Mr. Monkhouse has served on a number of Member Advisory Groups (MAGs), including the Community Development MAG, Community Services MAG and the Leadership Institute Advisory Group. In addition, Mr. Monkhouse was one of 17 members on the Community Transformation Project Action Team.

Mr. Monkhouse is currently the Program Director, Engineering, Architecture, and Science at The Chang School of Continuing Education, Ryerson University. In this role, Mr. Monkhouse is responsible for over 12 continuing education certificates and a number of other continuing education courses, as well as for setting the strategic direction for the portfolio of certificates. Mr. Monkhouse has over 28 years of project and leadership experience. Throughout his career, Mr. Monkhouse has actively led projects and project managers in the areas of consulting, engineering, information technology, and organizational change for multinational organizations. In a recent role, Mr. Monkhouse has successfully coached, mentored, and worked with project managers across six continents.

Prior to taking the role of Program Director, Mr. Monkhouse was the Academic Coordinator for the Project Management Certificate in The Chang School. Under Mr. Monkhouse's leadership, the Project Management Certificate Program at Ryerson University was recognized by PMI in 2007 with the Professional Development Provider of the Year Award – Academic Category.

In the fall of 2007, Mr. Monkhouse assumed the position of Chair of the Canadian Mirror Committee for the ISO PC236. In this role, Mr. Monkhouse is actively working with the Canadian members and other country representatives to develop the new ISO 21500 Project Management Standard. Mr. Monkhouse received his BSc (Engineering) from Queen's University and his MBA from the University of Toronto. He obtained his Project Management Professional (PMP)® in 1999, and in May 2008 he graduated from PMI's Leadership Institute Masters Class.

About PMI

Project Management Institute (PMI.org) is the leading advocate for the project management profession globally. Founded in 1969, PMI has nearly 500,000 members and credential holders in 175 countries. PMI's Project Management Professional (PMP®) credential is recognized as the only globally-transferrable credential in project management.