

William A. Moylan, PhD, PMP®

Director

William Moylan, PhD, PMP, is a tenured professor of construction management at Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, Michigan, USA. He is consultant, trainer and expert witness in Project Management.

Dr. Moylan has extensive professional experience in all aspects of program and project management, with more than 11 years international experience with the Arabian American Oil Co. His project experiences include new product development, quality improvement, computer and information systems, facility engineering and construction projects within the construction, oil and gas production, petroleum, chemical processing, energy, academic, government, public service, automotive and manufacturing.

In 2005, Dr. Moylan completed his PhD in organization and management, with a specialization in leadership, at Capella University (Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA). He received his Bachelor of Science degree in construction engineering from Lawrence Technological University (Southfield, Michigan, USA) and his master's degree from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (Cambridge, Massachusetts, USA), where he majored in project management and minored in international business. In 1991, he earned the Project Management Professional (PMP)® credential.

Dr. Moylan is active in a variety of professional societies and civic activities, including Project Management Institute (PMI), the Engineering Society of Detroit (Michigan, USA), Habitat for Humanity and Toastmasters International. An active member of PMI since 1983, he is presently a PMI board member in the second year of a 3-year term. His other PMI leadership service includes the PMI Educational Foundation (PMIEF), certification, standards, and assembly of SIG chairs. He has also been a component officer of several chapters and SIGs. In 2000, PMI honored him with the Distinguished Contribution Award. In 2004, the PMIEF awarded Dr. Moylan the PMI Fellows scholarship.

About PMI

Project Management Institute (PMI.org) is the leading advocate for the project management profession globally. Founded in 1969, PMI has nearly 500,000 members and credential holders in 175 countries. PMI's Project Management Professional (PMP)® credential is recognized as the only globally-transferrable credential in project management.