That's it!

PMI's Career Headquarters is an online job board designed to connect employers with Project Management professionals around the globe.

PMI is the world's largest project management member association, representing more than half a million practitioners in over 185 countries. As a global thought leader and knowledge resource, PMI advances the profession through its global standards and credentials, collaborative chapters and virtual communities and academic research. When organizations invest in project management, supported by PMI, executives have confidence their important initiatives deliver expected results, greater business value and competitive advantage. (this is our standard boilerplate wording we use on outgoing communications)

Career Headquarters is cost-effective and easy to use

Simply go to www.pmi.org/chq to create an account and post a job. CHQ is similar to other job boards you may have used. We want you to be among the first to see the highly qualified professionals that are continually attracted to the CHQ site. So we have included our resume search feature, with each job posting package, at no additional cost.

Leading in the "NOW"

Now is the time to rebuild and prepare for the future. Project managers are central to creating and delivering business value, whether your organization helps create new sources of energy, build and repair infrastructure, connect global enterprises, or build intelligence data centers, project managers are central for creating and delivering business value.

For the best source of highly desirable project, program and portfolio managers around the globe, visit PMI Career Headquarters today at www.pmi.org/chq
