

PMI EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION LEADERSHIP SOCIETY

The PMI Educational Foundation (PMIEF) Leadership Society recognizes individuals who are committed to leveraging project management for social good through a generous annual gift of $1,000 or more. Leadership Society donors are leading the way in bringing the benefits of project management to the farthest reaches of the world including academic scholarships for college and university students as well as educational resources and training programs to youth, nonprofit organizations, teachers, and underemployed or unemployed workers.

Society members will receive the following special recognition and exclusive benefits:

- Invitation to PMIEF receptions held during PMI Global Congresses
- Special recognition in the PMIEF Annual Report donor lists*
- Special recognition annually in the PMIEF newsletter PM for Social Good*
- Special recognition annually in PMI Today*
- Special recognition on this year's PMIEF virtual donor wall*
- Exclusive PMIEF lapel pin to identify your leadership within the PMI community
- Donor ribbon to wear on your PMI Global Congress badge identifying your leadership within the PMI community
- Special communications and invitations to discussions on creating new ideas and ways to leverage project management for social good

*Making a gift of US$1,000 or more automatically includes you, but you may choose to be excluded from all donor lists if you wish. You may make your donation online at www.pmief.org, via PMI's Global Marketplace, via check, or use this form to make a pledge, choose pledge payments and promise to pay the pledge by 31 December.
