Thank you for your interest in applying for a PMI Professional Award. This document provides Additional Submission Guidelines for your nomination. Please read each section carefully, and sign where directed on the Contact Information form, that you have read and have complied with these directives. This is a must read document for your application.

Each award has variations of requirements so it is important that you refer to the individual award Application Guidelines found at www.pmi.org/Awards.

Purpose of the PMI Professional Awards

Project Management Institute (PMI) strives to offer a professional awards program that encourages and recognizes the accomplishments of project management professionals and organizations around the world. PMI places a high regard and value on recognizing and honoring those who have made significant, memorable contributions to the Institute and to the project management profession. You can honor superior performance when you nominate excellent projects, project management professionals, training providers and organizations for PMI Professional Awards.

Timeline

The “Call for Nominations” begins 1 November each year; the deadline to submit all nominations is 1 March (PMO of the Year submission deadline is 1 May).

Eligibility

- Eligibility differs for each award. PMI affiliation may or may not be required for a nominee or nominated project.
- For additional information, refer to each individual award guidelines document posted on the specific award page.

Not Eligible

- Current PMI staff, contractors and/or consultants are not eligible to apply for an award.
- Acts performed under contract to PMI, directly or indirectly, will not be considered.
- Sitting members of PMI's Board of Directors may not participate in the nomination or evaluation process of an award, nor are members of the Board eligible to receive an award.
- Individuals or organizations that have failed to comply with PMI policies and procedures, including but not limited to PMI's Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct, will not be considered.
- For additional information, refer to each individual award guidelines document posted on the specific award page.

Number of Awards

- The number of recipients differs for each award.
- PMI reserves the right not to select any recipients for a particular year if the evaluations performed indicate that nominations do not meet the stated criteria.
- For additional information, refer to each individual award guidelines document posted on the specific award page.

Criteria

- Specific criteria are outlined in each award Application.
- Submissions must address all of the criteria elements.
- For additional information, refer to each individual award guidelines document posted on the specific award page.
Nomination Procedures

- There shall be one designated lead nominator with whom PMI will communicate regarding the nomination.
- Lead Nominator’s responsibilities:
  - Must have knowledge of the nominated project or nominee and the project management principles applied.
  - Must document any direct personal or professional relationship of the lead nominator to the nominated project or nominee.
  - Must ensure the nomination package is complete at the time of submission; incomplete nomination packages will not be evaluated.
  - Must review the specific eligibility, restrictions and content outlined on each award document.
  - Must ensure the following documents are included with the submission. Failure to provide the necessary forms will eliminate the nomination from consideration.

  - PMI Release Form
    The nominee/client/owner of any body of work being considered for a PMI Professional Award must complete and sign the PMI Release Form granting PMI the non-exclusive right to use any submitted copyrighted materials for any business-related purpose, including press releases, and other marketing and promotional materials, including but not limited to videos as well as case studies. This form, available on each awards web page, will not count toward the stated page count maximum. Lead Nominators (unless you are also the nominee/client/owner of the body of work) must forward this form to the nominee and ensure that the nominee signs, dates, and returns the PMI Release Form that must be included in the nomination package.

  - PMI Permissions Form
    The nominee/client/owner of any body of work being considered for a PMI Professional Award must complete and sign the PMI Permissions Form confirming whether he or she did, or did not, use any PMI trademark, logo or copyrighted content from any PMI publication. Usage will require permission from PMI in the form of a permission agreement or license available at “http://www.pmi.org/Forms-Permissions”. The award nomination package must provide the PMI Permission Agreement Title or License Number in Box A of the PMI Permissions Form, available on each awards web page. If no PMI intellectual property has been used in the body of work being considered for a PMI Professional Award, please complete Box B on the PMI Permissions Form. The form will not count toward the stated page count maximum.

  - PMI Contact Information Form
    This document lists the contact information for the lead nominator and nominee, etc. This form, available on each awards web page, will not count toward the stated page count maximum.

Nomination Requirements

- Nominations must be sent electronically to awards@pmi.org and must be received no later than 1 March.
- All submitted material must be in English with a minimum of a 10-pt. font.
- Specific submission and criteria page count maximums are outlined on each individual awards Guidelines document. Submissions that exceed the documented page count maximum will not be evaluated.
- Any additional documentation in alternate media formats, such as multimedia, will not be evaluated.
-Nomination packages that are incomplete or are received after the submission deadline will not be reviewed.
- There are no application fees to apply for any of the PMI Professional Awards.
- For additional information, please refer to the individual awards Application and Guidelines documents posted on the awards web page.
