

PMI Linn Stuckenbruck Person of the Year Award Application

All applications for consideration of the PMI Linn Stuckenbruck Person of the Year Award must use this form as a template and must address each of the criteria listed below in two pages or fewer (8 ½" x 11"/A4 paper, minimum 10-point type). Please review the PMI Linn Stuckenbruck Person of the Year Award Guidelines and General Submission Guidelines documents at www.pmi.org/Awards or contact awards@pmi.org.

Criteria

The nominated individual must have made outstanding contribution(s) to the development and advancement of the project management profession and contributions to the Project Management Institute completed in the previous calendar year and shall have met the following criteria:

Criterion 1: The nominee's significant contribution(s) brought recognition to the Institute as the world's leader in project management.

Criterion 2: The nominee's significant contribution(s) to the profession expanded and advanced project management knowledge, use, and application.

Criterion 3: The contribution(s) demonstrates broad, far-reaching implications for the project management profession.

I, THE UNDERSIGNED, acting as the Lead Nominator, certify that the information provided in this nomination submission is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

Lead Nominator Name: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____