

PMI Madrid, Spain Chapter Holds Its First Annual Volunteers Meeting

The PMI Madrid, Spain Chapter held its First Annual Volunteers Meeting on Tuesday, 5 December 2017 (coinciding with International Volunteer Day) in Madrid, Spain.

It was a great success, with the meeting being open to both current and prospective volunteers, who were asked to answer: “Why am I a volunteer?”

Volunteers shared their “personal sense of accomplishment” from their volunteer experience. The event collaborated with the PMI Educational Foundation (PMIEF) in Sierra Leona and with non-governmental organizations (NGOs) through Project Managers para el Desarrollo (PMD), a group created within the PMI Madrid, Spain Chapter to develop projects on the third sector. In addition, the “Best Volunteer Recognition Initiative” was awarded at the event.

The PMI Madrid, Spain Chapter has over 100 volunteers who support activities in the chapter, as well as the Chapter’s seven branches. Additional volunteers were recruited as a result of the event.
