Chapter Presidents Meeting

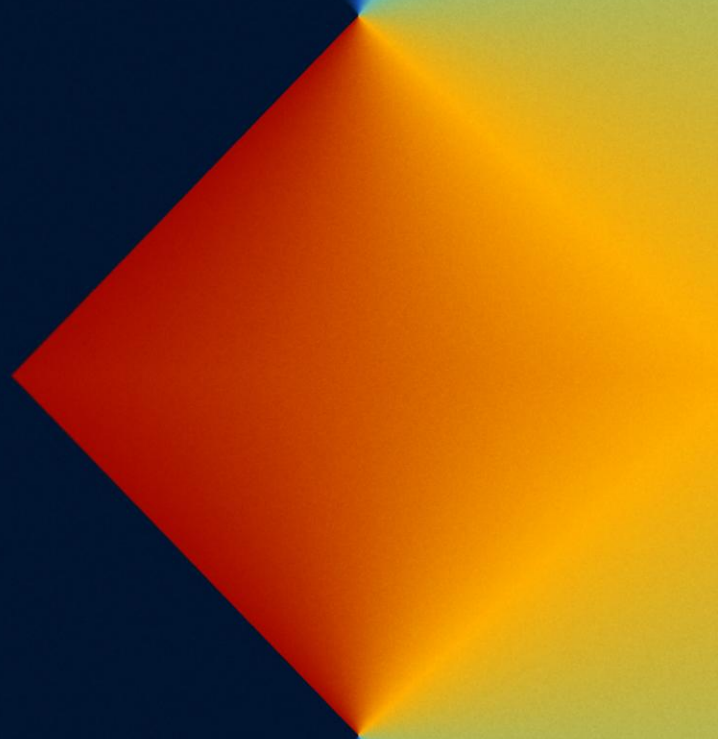

19 October, 2026

2:15-3:15 PM | 3:45-4:45 PM

PMI Culture Value: Be Welcoming

Project Management Institute.

- PART 1: Core 5 themes based on the submitted questions
- PART 2: Live Q&A

Project Management Institute.

Johannes Heinlein

Interim President & CEO

PMI

Brantlee Underhill

Chief Community Officer

PMI

David Cumberbatch

Region Managing Director
North America

PMI

Project Management Institute.

Question for: Johannes

1. What role should chapters play in PMI's future, and how should they adapt to provide local community, as more members engage digitally?

Question for: Johannes

1. What role should chapters play in PMI's future, and how should they adapt to provide local community, as more members engage digitally?

Question for: Johannes

1. What role should chapters play in PMI's future, and how should they adapt to provide local community, as more members engage digitally?

Question for: Brantlee

2. How can PMI simplify or centralize chapter operations so volunteers can focus more on leadership and member value?

Question for: Brantlee

2. How can PMI simplify or centralize chapter operations so volunteers can focus more on leadership and member value?

Question for: Brantlee

2. How can PMI simplify or centralize chapter operations so volunteers can focus more on leadership and member value?

Question for: Brantlee

2. How can PMI simplify or centralize chapter operations so volunteers can focus more on leadership and member value?

Question for: David

3. Across the region, which barriers most constrain chapter growth, and how can chapters address them while remaining locally relevant?

Question for: David

3. Across the region, which barriers most constrain chapter growth, and how can chapters address them while remaining locally relevant?

Question for: David

3. Across the region, which barriers most constrain chapter growth, and how can chapters address them while remaining locally relevant?

Question for: Johannes

4. Regarding the upcoming changes to PMP training eligibility, what is the larger context for this change, and what may Chapters share with their members?

Question for: Johannes

4. Regarding the upcoming changes to PMP training eligibility, what is the larger context for this change, and what may Chapters share with their members?

Question for: David

5. What are the most effective practices to turn membership growth into lasting engagement and volunteering, while balancing a consistent PMI experience with local needs?

Question for: David

5. What are the most effective practices to turn membership growth into lasting engagement and volunteering, while balancing a consistent PMI experience with local needs?

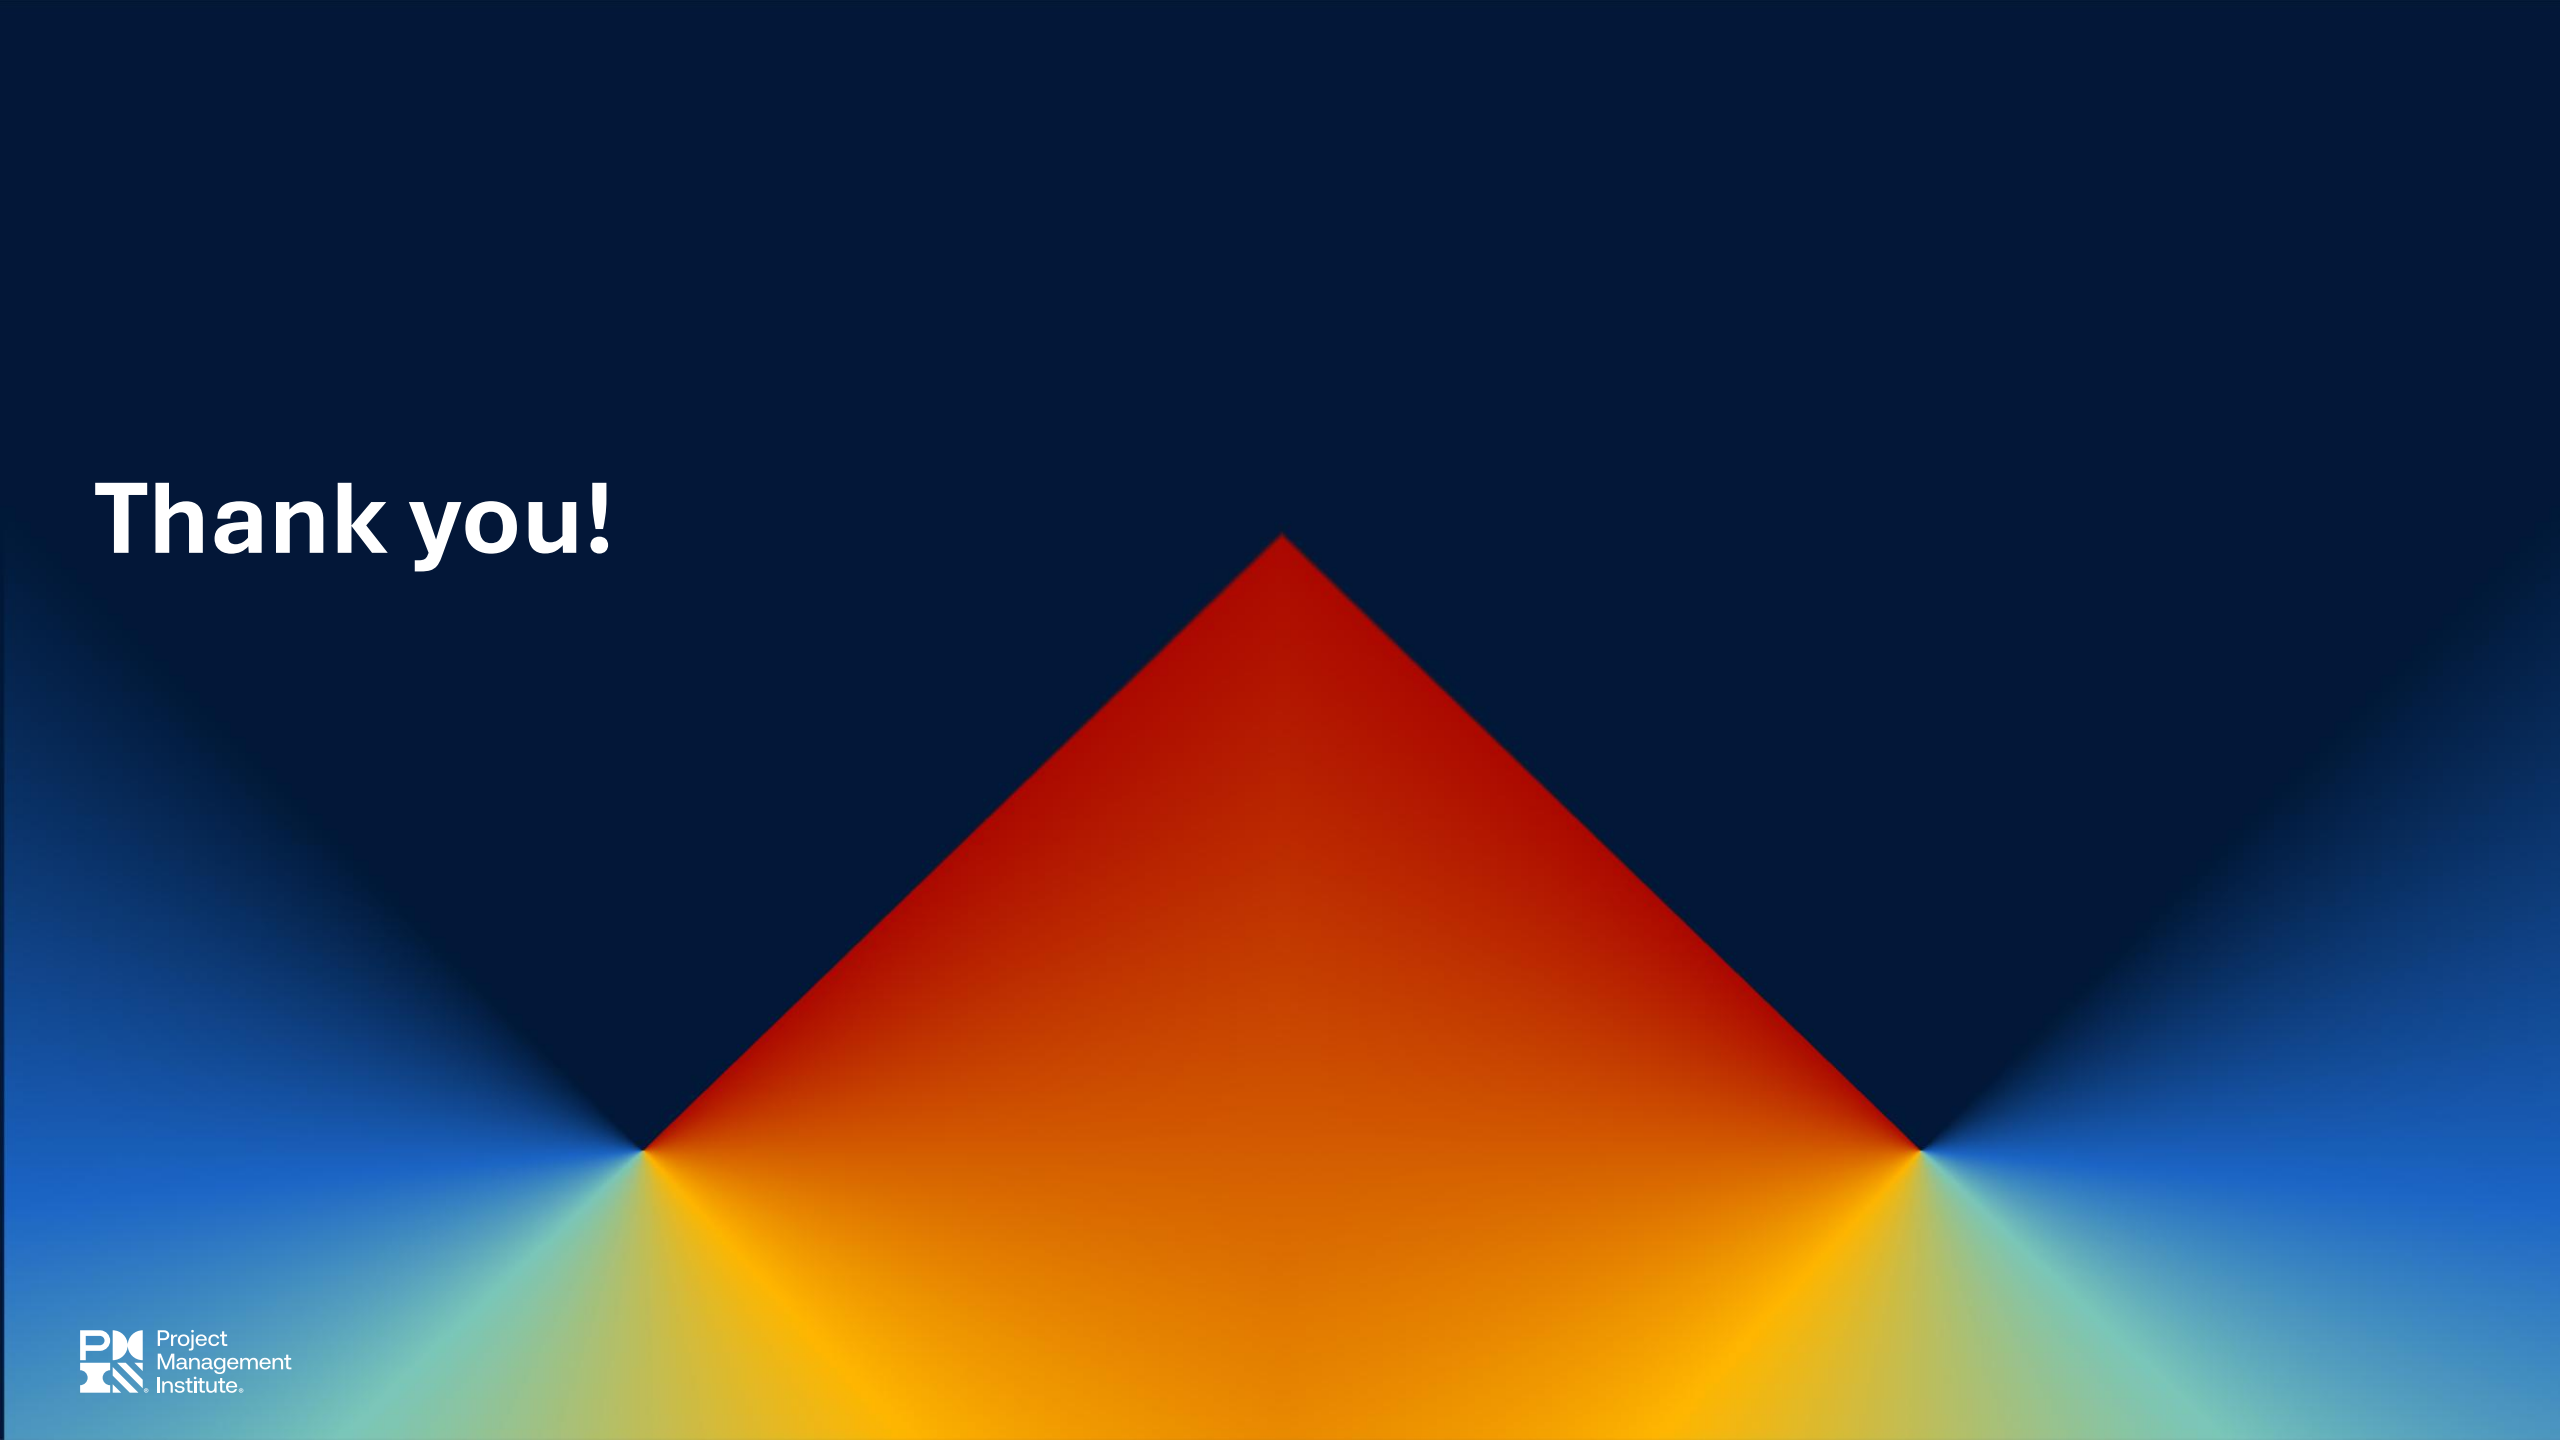

Question for: David

5. What are the most effective practices to turn membership growth into lasting engagement and volunteering, while balancing a consistent PMI experience with local needs?

SAVE THE DATE:
Join us in Chicago, 17-19 May, 2027, for the NA Chapter President Meeting (NACPM)!

Project Management Institute.

Thank you!

Project Management Institute.