

Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM)[®] 2023 Exam Update

ATP FAQs

1. Will an instructor-led course be available to support the new CAPM exam?

Yes, an instructor-led PMI-sanctioned exam course for the Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM)[®] Exam, will be available to ATPs in May 2023. ATPs also have the option to update their CAPM curriculum aligned to the new Exam Content Outline.

2. Can I resell the PMI[®] Authorized Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM)[®] Exam Prep Course to my learners?

ATP Reseller Program participants will have the opportunity to resell a PMI[®] Authorized CAPM[®] Exam Prep eLearning course to their learners in Q4 2023. More information will be shared as it becomes available.

3. How do I qualify to teach the instructor-led PMI[®] Authorized Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM)[®] Exam Prep Course?

The PMI[®] Authorized Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM)[®] Exam Prep Course will be available in May 2023. To teach the course, you will need to hold a CAPM or PMP certification. You will not have to complete the course itself, but you will need to complete a PMI train-the-trainer course. We will be allowing one PMP qualified trainer from each ATP to bypass the course. They will still need to go through the Train-the-Trainer course to qualify. This exemption will run for one year from exam changeover date (July 25).

4. Why is there a delay in the instructor-led prep course?

The PMI[®] Authorized Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM)[®] Exam Prep Course is primarily text-forward for instructor-led classroom training and is in process of being written by the authors and will then be edited before it is published. ATPs that are interested in prepping CAPM candidates for the new exam may update their curriculum now using the Exam Content Outline.

5. Can I continue to teach my current CAPM curriculum to learners?

Yes, you may continue to provide instruction on the current CAPM exam. The exam will officially change over on 25 July 2023. You may decide when to switch instruction to the new exam based on the currently released ECO.

6. How can I access the instructor-led course?

Once available, ATPs can access the instructor-led prep course on the Logical Operations platform.
