Creating and Sustaining a Positive Work Team: Breaking the 7 Habits of Negativity and Other Secrets of Getting Along!

Instructor(s): April Callis-Birchmeier

Length: 1 hour

Prework: None

CEUs: 0.1/see below for PDU breakdown

Level: Intermediate

Training Topic: Communication and Presentation Skills

Subtopics: Program Management, Leading Project Teams

Training Description:

Turnover, stress-related illness, and disengagement are signs of a problematic workplace and often result from mismanaged change. The Gallup State of the American Workplace report states nearly 70% of employees are unhappy or disengaged at work. This training provides humorous insights into the seven habits of negativity with strategies and tactics to stop gossip, increase camaraderie, and develop positive workplace practices. Learn techniques for getting along with others and strategies to attain the many benefits of a positive and engaged workforce.

Learning Objectives:

Upon completion of this training, learners will be able to:

- Recognize the cost of negativity at work.
- Discover how perceptual framework impacts their work with others.
- Identify the seven habits of negativity.
- Discover strategies for positive response.

Professional Development Units (PDUS) are one-hour blocks of time spent learning, teaching others, or volunteering. By attending this course, you will be able to achieve the following PDUs as learning hours to apply for PMI certification or to maintain your certification status with PMI.
