Next Generation Leadership and Communication: How to Thrive in Today's Turbulent & Uncertain World

Instructor(s): Jack Duggal, PMP

Length: 1 day

Pre-work: None

CEUs: 0.7 / See below for PDU breakdown

Level: Intermediate

Primary Topic: Leadership Development

Subtopics: Communication and Presentation Skills, Complexity

Course Description:

In today's turbulent time, what kind of leadership and communications is required to make sense of uncertainty? How can we navigate and support ourselves, our teams, projects, programs, organizations, and our personal lives? How do we make sense of the new normal in the post-pandemic world and how it impacts our projects and programs? How do we get through this and manage in an increasingly unpredictable environment?

We are going to have to reflect, reframe, renew, and rethink our approaches. This engaging seminar will challenge your existing beliefs of leadership and provoke you to think differently and provide new insights to deal with current challenges you and your organization face. Using current examples and illustrations, you will learn five unconventional characteristics of next generation leadership to apply in your organization. Re-design, re-invent and prepare yourself for the post-pandemic world.

The focus will be on discovering and tapping the relevant skills to develop the right operating system and mindset to not only be resilient but go beyond and thrive and get stronger from adversity. Focusing on next-generation ideas, this seminar will reveal unconventional leadership and communications skills characteristic of the top performing leaders. You will learn to apply timely leadership insights and practical ideas and learn to thrive and DANCE on the edge of chaos!

Additional PDU Opportunities

In addition to 7 PDUs for attending this seminar, you will also get an opportunity to earn additional PDUs for participating in post-seminar application work (optional) that can be self-reported. You will get more details of how to participate in this program during the seminar directly from your instructor.
